Grandma always said dying is the the easy part; it's the living that's hard. I've been fighting to live since I was seven years old, and now the doctors say I'm gonna lose that battle soon. I've crossed off just about everything on my bucket list—I've seen the Eiffel Tower and the Coliseum and I've been swimming in the Caribbean; I've lived like I'm dying, because I am. There's just one thing left on my list: I want to be a bride. I want to wear white and have my dad walk me down the aisle. I want a first dance and cake and a night to feel like a princess...and I want it with Westley Britton. The perfect guy. Musician, actor, and every girl's dream man. My dream man. Only, he doesn't even know I exist. It's the start of a strange, improbable fairy tale. When you're talking about terminal leukemia, happily ever after seems impossible, but when your celebrity crush and the man of your dreams shows up out of the blue and proposes to you, it makes you feel like anything is possible. Even that hardest thing: living.

Sam of Wilds emerges from the Dark Woods to find the dark wizard Myrin has overthrown the kingdom. But a brave knight, a defiant prince, a pissed-off unicorn, and a half-giant have formed a resistance in Sam's

From the New York Times bestselling author of THE FIRST WIVES CLUB. Claire takes the ferry into Manhattan every day, wishing that life could be as magical as it is in the novels she reads, and hoping she'll catch a glimpse of sexy lawyer Michael at work. One day, out of the blue, Michael offers her a trip to London, all expenses paid, and Claire's fortunes take an extraordinary about-turn. Crossing the Atlantic, a whole new world opens up for Claire. Finally, she can revel in all the delights London has to offer a girl with a fresh spring in her step. The streets may not be paved with gold, but they are rich with opportunity. But happily-ever-after isn't easy, even in fairytales...and Claire must reckon without the obstructive efforts of a very strait-laced Englishman if she is going to have the happy ending she's after.

A wonderful warm festive treat from the Sunday Times bestselling author of The Christmas Invitation

Experience the most iconic and inspirational moments from five classic Disney films in this unique board book. Make a wish with Dumbo, Simba, Pinocchio, Peter Pan, and Bambi in this delightful interactive book that features a shining star that moves across the night sky with each turn of the page.

Baby Bear is afraid of the dark, but when a falling star lands at the end of his garden, he knows he has to be brave if he wants to go and see it. With his teddy tucked under his arm and Mommy by his side, Baby Bear ventures into the night, soon discovering a world of magic and moonlight right outside his door. Stunningly illustrated and beautifully told, this touching bedtime tale is perfect to share with those you love.

Leslie Raymond spent the past two years wishing her life had taken a different turn. It's time for a fresh start, a move across the country, and a new set of rules to help heal her heart—no straight women, no women with kids, and no commitment. But when she meets her new neighbors, the beautiful Erica and her special needs daughter, Siena, she struggles against the pull she immediately experiences. Erica Cooper has learned to rely only on herself. She knows most people don't stick around when the going gets tough. And when caring for child with autism, the going can get tough fast. She is content with the quiet and emotionally safe life she's constructed, but when they are befriended by their kind, playful, and—damn it—really hot new neighbor, the walls protecting her heart threaten to crumble. So much for good intentions and firm resolutions—neither stand a chance when the stars align for love.
